

Faq's About Dining Services

What food am I allowed to take out of Coblenz Dining Hall?

You are welcome to eat as much as you care to while in the dining hall. For your enjoyment you are allowed to take one piece of fruit, an ice cream cone or 3 cookies. Sandwiches or anything else are not to be wrapped and taken from the dining hall by students, faculty or staff. Also, please do not bring large containers in to fill with beverages to go.

How can I eat if I don't have my ID card?

All students on a meal plan must have their ID card to come into the dining hall. If you forgot it in your room or car you must go and get it. If it is lost you must have it replaced by Campus Safety.

What can I do if I am unable to eat because of a job, sports or class?

Please get a bag meal form from the cashier, fill it out and return. We will keep it on file and have it ready for you at the date and time you request.

When and how can I add flex dollars to my account?

Any time between 6 am and 3 pm Monday through Friday. Just come to the dining service office and see Billie Winpigler. She will be more than happy to help. Please know that for every $100.00 you put on your card we will give you a $10.00 bonus!

What do I do if my card does not work?

Please see Billie Winpigler in the dining service office. If she can not fix the issue she will direct you to the proper office to resolve the issue.

Can I double swipe my card to pay for a friend?

No, the meal plan is for your use only. If you run out of guest passes the door rate must be paid.

Do my Blazer Bucks and Flex Dollars carry over from semester to semester?

Blazer Bucks expire at the end of each semester. Flex dollars carry over from first to second semester. Flex dollars do expire at the end of the academic year.

How can I eat if I am sick?

Please contact the Health Center and request that they contact us to let us know that someone will be picking up food for you. In the event that the Center is closed, please contact Residence Life or Campus Safety. Please understand that without proper authorization, we can not provide food to go.

How can I find out about Special Events in the dining hall and Specials in the Blazer?

Special events are posted at the door of Coblenz dining hall and specials in the Blazer are posted on the counter by the cash register. You can also follow us on Twitter @ coblenzdining and get updates right on your phone or computer.

Why do I have to wear shoes in the dining hall?

For your safety and sanitation. Please don't ask us to make exceptions.

Why are there sneeze guards around the deli, desserts and salad bar?

These are required by the Frederick County Health Department. They also require that guests use the utensils provided to get food and not simply use their hands as we have seen folks do.

Where can I find more information about the dining service including menus and nutritional information.

Simply log on to Campus Dish through the Hood website. There you will find lots of information including our menus and nutritional information.
